

Critical Terms For Occupational Safety and Health Practitioners

Reduce these terms to “understandable” concepts by rank and file Employees

“C” (on Safety Data Sheet)	Industrial Hygienist
“S” (on Safety Data Sheet)	Informal Conference
“STEL” (on Safety Data Sheet)	Job Safety/Hazard Analysis
ACGIH	Lack of Employer Knowledge
Activities of Management	Ladder of Control
Administrative Control	Logic
Administrative Law Judge	Logical Time Defense
Affirmative Defense	Matrix
Appeals Process	Minimum Standard
CGA	Myth vs Reality
Competent	NFPA
Concept	NIOSH
Condition of Employment	Organizational Chart
Consensus Standards	PEL
Content	Performance Standard
Context	Personal Protective Equipment
Critical Analysis	PinHead
CSHO	Progressive Disciplining
Decision Logic	Proscriptive Standard
Definition of Management	Qualified
Due Process	Risk Assessment
Economic Activity	Route of Entry
Economic Unit	Safety Engineer
Engineering Control	Scientific Method
Fit for Duty Test	Situational Analysis
Guidance Document	Spirit of Law vs Letter of Law
Hazard	Theory vs Practice
Hybrid Standard	TWA
Independent Employee Action of Misconduct	Zone of Danger